

Aetna HealthFund® Health Savings Account (HSA) Beneficiary Designation

Instructions

- This form allows you to designate a beneficiary for your HSA in the event of your death.
- Spouse Election: If you are married and your spouse is living at the time of your death, you may choose to keep your HSA open and transfer it to your spouse for his/her use.
- Designation of Beneficiaries: If you are not married, your spouse is not living at the time of your death or if you do want the account to remain open for your spouse, you may designate one or more beneficiaries to receive the balance of your account. The account will be closed and the balance distributed in cash. If you do not designate a beneficiary or if all of your designated beneficiaries die before you, the balance will be distributed to your estate.
- Your election and designations will be effective when this form is received, and will supersede all prior elections/designations.
- To make these elections please complete this form and return it to: Attn: HSA Enrollment
Aetna
151 Farmington Avenue
Hartford, CT 06156-8961
- Please retain a copy of your completed form for your files.

The options indicated with a star () are the defaults that have been established for your account. These will remain in effect unless/until we receive an alternative election from you.

Primary Beneficiaries

If you name more than one beneficiary indicate the percentage of the balance to be received by each beneficiary (the percentages should add to 100%). If a beneficiary should die before you, his or her interest, as well as the interests of his or her heirs, will terminate completely and the percentage share of the surviving beneficiaries will be increased on pro-rata basis. If none of your designated beneficiaries are alive at the time of your death, the balance of your HSA will be distributed to your estate. If you are currently married and if you have designated someone other than (or in addition to) your spouse as beneficiary, please have your spouse authorize the designation by signing below.
